

Ostinato is a three piece blend, the most voluminous portion being a young extra pale saison accented by lemongrass and meridian hops. Two different single cask beers were then added, one being a vermouth barrel filled with Saison Vert and the other an old tom gin barrel with a hoppy one-off from 2017 under the name Glass Tower. The resulting blend (50/25/25) brings together bright citric character, botanical notes, and spirit elements within a light, dry, classic saison base.

FREQUENCIES

Ostinato blends lemongrass and black lime saisons aged in vermouth and gin casks.
