

Shades is the companion brew to the Hearts' Beat, using rainier cherries that don't add much in the way of color, yet their flavor contribution is enormous. Extended contact time on the whole fruit yields a beer with an intense tannic profile reminiscent of a tannat wine. The fruit also contributes firm acidity that works with multiple brettanomyces strains in the flavor profile, making for a forward beer that uses oak to round out the edges in what is our most aggressive sour beer.

Shades is a deceptively forward fruit beer using rainier cherries to wine like effect, with a huge tannic structure and depth of flavor
